

Program of Events:

Friday, May 11th, 2018

9:00 - 9:30	Continental Breakfast
9:45 - 10:00	Welcome
10:00 - 11:15	Bill Harper (Chair - Craig Fox) “Newtonian Causal Dependencies”
11:15 - 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 - 12:45	Allan Franklin (Chair - Craig Fox) “An Incomplete History of Gravity Experiments”
12:45 - 2:00	Lunch
2:00 - 3:15	Katherine Dunlop (Chair - Marcello Di Bello) “Kant’s Account of Attractive Force as Essential to Matter”
3:15 - 3:30	Coffee Break
3:30 - 4:45	Teru Miyake (Chair - Marcello Di Bello) “Residual Phenomena and Optics in the Early Nineteenth Century”
4:45 - 6:00	Michael Friedman (Chair - Marcello Di Bello) “Methodological Structuralism: Phenomena, Theory-Mediated Measurement, and Scientific Realism”
6:00 - 7:30	Reception and Dinner

Saturday, May 12th, 2018

9:00 - 9:30	Continental Breakfast
9:30 - 10:45	Chris Smeenk (Chair - Monica Solomon) “Reflections on the Newtonian Style”
10:45 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:15	Katherine Brading (Chair - Monica Solomon) “Philosophical Mechanics in the 18 th Century”
12:15 - 1:30	Lunch
1:30 - 2:45	Robert DiSalle (Chair - Monica Solomon) “Newton on the Theory of Relativity and the Method of Mathematical Physics”
2:45 - 3:00	Coffee Break
3:00 - 4:15	Jody Azzouni (Chair - Raghav Seth) “Seth & Smith on Taking to be True ”
4:15 - 5:30	Eric Schliesser (Chair - Raghav Seth) “Huygens and Newton (of course!): Some Awkward Observations about Causal Isolation and Simultaneity”
5:30 - 6:00	Reception

This event has been generously sponsored by Tufts University, the Deans of Arts and Sciences, the Office of Alumni Affairs, and the Department of Philosophy.